

AXELROD
CONTEMPORARY BALLET THEATER

Join us as we celebrate the fifth anniversary of the Axelrod Contemporary Ballet Theater (AXCBT), Monmouth County's only professional ballet company. On Thursday evening, May 18, we present a one-night-only event, "Architects of Dance," at Bell Works in Holmdel. This performance will include original choreography by three of the greatest modern dancers of today plus special performances by all three.
(The details of this exciting program can be found in the enclosed brochure.)

Under the leadership of Artistic Director Gabriel Chajnik, AXCBT has become the fastest-growing professional company in New Jersey. In addition to creating more than a dozen original dance programs, including four full-scale ballets, AXCBT has founded a successful apprenticeship program, investing in training young dancers who are striving to become professionals.

We look to our patrons, friends and arts lovers to come forward at this time to support us and to help AXCBT continue to flourish in the coming years. Ticket sales alone do not support the efforts of non-profit cultural organizations—we need your help to enable us to continue to provide scholarships, engage professional dancers, and create new original works to enrich the cultural life of Monmouth County.

Become a Sponsor of AXCBT today at one of the levels described on the reverse side of this letter. You can also join our Circle of Friends and enjoy invitations to unique events and receptions, photo opportunities, talkbacks with the artists, reserved seating at all performances, and more.
Any contribution is greatly appreciated!
